

The Laplacian Matrix is $L = D - A$, where D is the degree matrix (diagonal matrix) and A is the adjacency matrix ($A[u][v]$: number of edges between u and v).

Kirchoff Theorem: All the cofactors of the Laplacian matrix are equal to each other and are equal to the number of spanning tree of the graph.